Residential on 2.51 Acres

WINDMILL POINT, Pasadena, MD

Welcome to 5108 Mountain Road, a breathtaking craftsman estate set on 2.5 acres of natural beauty and privacy in the heart of Pasadena. Originally built in 2002 and completely reimaged in 2025, this home combines timeless architecture with modern luxury and meticulous attention to detail. The setting is extraordinary – approximately three-quarters of an acre have been beautifully cleared and landscaped, creating a picturesque open yard perfect for garden parties, family gatherings, or evenings around a fire pit under the stars, while the remaining land is preserved in protected forest conservation, ensuring privacy, serenity, and an ever-changing backdrop of natural beauty. The property overlooks a peaceful horse farm and enjoys tranquil seasonal water views that glisten softly through the trees – close enough to feel the calm of the Magothy River, yet perfectly secluded from the world. Inside, the home spans three levels of refined living, filled with natural light, craftsmanship, and architectural elegance. The main level was designed for connection and entertaining, featuring gleaming hardwood floors, coffered ceilings, dramatic trim work, and exquisite millwork throughout. The chef’s kitchen is a showpiece, offering 42-inch custom cabinetry, a built-in range, professional-grade stainless steel appliances, hand-selected tile, the finest quartz countertops, and a sunny breakfast nook that’s perfect for casual dining or morning coffee. A grand dining room sets the stage for holidays and celebrations, while the living room “ anchored by a fireplace and opening to a composite deck “ provides an inviting space for gatherings both large and small. Two ensuite bedrooms and a stylish half bath complete this level, offering flexibility and comfort for guests or family. The upper level is entirely devoted to the primary suite, a private retreat of rare scale and luxury. This peaceful haven includes a spa-inspired bath, expansive walk-in closet, cozy fireplace, sitting area, and a private office or gym that can also serve as a nursery. Step onto the balcony to savor quiet mornings or unwind at sunset as light filters softly through the trees. The sunlit lower level features a two-car garage, additional bedroom, full bath, and a spacious den or media room “ perfect for guests, hobbies, or a home fitness studio. Every inch of the home is spotless and beautifully maintained, enhanced by recessed lighting, ceiling fans, and custom finishes that showcase its craftsmanship and quality. Outdoor living is where this home truly shines. The paver patio and built-in grill create an entertainer’s™ dream setting, while the expansive lawn invites outdoor games, summer cookouts, or simply relaxing in the peaceful surroundings. The brick and Hardiplank exterior, composite decking, and mature landscaping reflect timeless beauty and low-maintenance durability, and the long private driveway easily accommodates up to ten cars. Adding even more flexibility is the detached guest cottage, featuring a full kitchen, bedroom, living area, private bath, and washer/dryer “ ideal for multi-generational living, a college student, an au pair, or guest quarters. Perfectly positioned just minutes from Downs Park, where more than five miles of scenic trails, a fishing pier, playgrounds, and panoramic views of the Chesapeake Bay await, this home offers a lifestyle that balances natural tranquility with everyday convenience. Nestled just a few hundred feet from Gibson Island on a quiet, friendly stretch of Mountain Road, and located within the highly coveted Chesapeake School feeder system, 5108 Mountain Road delivers a rare blend of elegance, warmth, and versatility. Every inch has been curated for comfort, beauty, and joy. This is more than a home – it’s a sanctuary, a gathering place, and a reflection of the life you’ve worked hard to create.
