Residential on 0.26 Acres

WYE ACRES, Queenstown, MD

Whether for a weekend getaway or full-time residence, this well elevated waterfront property offers deep water and wide views at an affordable price. Sited at the end of a peninsula on Maryland's pristine Wye River in Queen Annes County, 618 Pigpen Point is located just 15 minutes from the Chesapeake Bay Bridge and 25 minutes to Easton. Situated directly cross the river from Wye Island, a serene sanctuary of unspoiled wetlands, hardwood forests, and nature-rich trails, you will enjoy broad, rap-around views of one of the Eastern Shore's most beautiful and scenic waterways. With spectacular expansive riverfront leading out to Eastern Bay on one side and a quiet cove on the other, this property offers convenient one-story living with 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, large living room, eat-in kitchen, laundry and tiled family room with fireplace. In addition, there is an expansive walk-out basement with plenty of room for a workshop, storage or finishing into extra living space. Please see Virtual Tour "Wye River Cottage" included in this listing to appreciate the surrounding beauty of this rare location on the Wye River. The property is in need of renovation and is offered AS-IS, all desired inspections should be completed prior to offer. Septic inspection & repair receipt available, recommended repairs made (filter and riser installed). A/C repaired and in good working order.
